

UNIVERSITY OF ELDORET

REGULAR UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

Academic Year: 2020/2021 Session: June – October 2021
Year of Study: 1st Semester: 2nd
School: Education Department: Languages Literature Educ.
Degree being examined: B.Ed (Arts)
Course title: English Phonetics and Phonology
Code: EENG 122
Exam date: October, 2021,
Campus & no.
of students: Main - 270
 Town - 18
No. of Pages: 2

Instructions to candidates

Answer Question 1 and any other three questions

Question 1

a) Transcribe phonemically each of the following English words and state the place of articulation for the initial sound:

- | | |
|--------------|--------------|
| i. Gem | vi. House |
| ii. Thomas | vii. Utensil |
| iii. Certain | viii. Threat |
| iv. Phone | ix. Charade |
| v. Correct | x. Chores |

(15 marks)

b) Compare fricative and affricate sounds in terms of articulation

(6 marks)

c) Briefly explain how the final sound in the word certain is articulated

(4 marks)

Question 2

a) Use suitable examples to explain three factors that can be used to make a syllable prominent

(3 marks)

b) With reference to the nature of the syllable explain the following terms by giving at least two examples for each:

- i. minimum syllable
- ii. closed syllable
- iii. coda
- iv. syllabic consonant

(12 marks)

Question 3

A student in your class pronounces the English word police as [foriði]

- a) Account for his/her pronunciation (8 marks)
- b) Briefly explain how you would go about correcting his/her pronunciation (5 marks)
- c) State any one articulatory process at play in his/her pronunciation (2 marks)

Question 4

- a) Many speakers of English realize the phoneme /t/ in two different ways in the word litre. Using transcribed illustrations of this word, describe the distribution of the two forms (9 marks)
- b) Briefly describe any two criteria used in categorizing vowel sounds (6 marks)

Question 5

Use at least two examples to explain the difference between the following pairs of terms as used in phonetics:

- a) Glottallic airstream and pulmonic airstream
- b) Active and passive articulator
- c) Phonotactics and phonation (15 marks)

Question 6

Discuss any five ways in which knowledge of English phonetics and phonology may be useful to a teacher of English (15 marks)